voice the general feeling of our community when I express deep regret that the unpleasantness occurred. (Cheers.)

The English captain, after touching upon the match, said:—Regarding the incident of Tuesday, we are only too glad to tear the pages out of the book, and forget it for ever. But it seems to me that the first rule of cricket is to obey the umpire implicitly, and especially an umpire of the ability and integrity of Crockett, who is considered to be not only one of the best in Australia, but also in the world. And when he was "bowed" like that it was an insult to him and to the game of cricket. Whether the batsman was out or not does not affect the question; but members in the pavilion who took part in the demonstration were not in a position to say. Now the match is over we have forgotten the incident. He proposed the health of the Australians, and he congratulated them on the battle they had fought. (Cheers.)

The Australian captain, in responding, said:—We had a most pleasant game. I am sure I simply echo the sentiments of the others of the team when I say that the game was played out in true British style. With regard to Tuesday's incident, it was regretted as much by our side as by the victors, and the majority of the members of this ground. In regard to Mr Crockett and the umpiring in general, I may say that it has given every satisfaction. I am quite sure that if Mr Crockett gave Mr Hill out, he was out. As we all find that an injustice has been done to Mr Crockett, I would like to say publicly that we are quite satisfied that what he did was right. (Cheers.)

LATE TELEGRAMS

The Tibet Mission

Calcutta, January 4.—Another small party of military signallers is being despatched for duty with the Tibet Mission. The Tibet Mission is still in the Chumbi Valley but may move at any time. The people continue friendly and the passes are open. The heavy snowfall which has blocked the Sini railway that passengers had to spend a night on the road has not extended to the Eastern Himalayas, and there is nothing therefore to interfere with the advance to Gyantse Jang as soon as sufficient supplies have been pushed up the Tanglek. The Pass which has to be crossed is about 15,700 feet high, is easy.

January 6.—The latest news from the Chumbi Valley is that General Younghusband and his Mission are now at the foot of the Tangle Pass and only await supplies to cross it. A large quantity of supplies has been accumulated in the Chumbi Valley so that even if the Tangle Pass should be found by snow, as is highly probable, the Mission will be able to wait there until the snow has melted, and then proceed with their march.

Indian Army News

Calcutta, January 4.—Captain Taylor, 2nd Welsh Regiment, is appointed to the Army Pay Department at Cardiff. Lieutenant P. E. Collier is posted to the Indian Army, Punjab Command. Second Lieutenant Montell, Unattached List, is transferred from Bengal to Bombay. Captain H. J. 34th Battery, and Second Lieutenant Dobbin, No 70 Company, Garrison Artillery, come out with drafts next month.

No man likes babies naturally. You have to learn to love as you do with babies.

Miss Asken—"So your marriage is put off?" Miss Crumby—"Yes, papa is not at all satisfied with his position; mamma doesn't like his family connections; a auntie thinks he is too careless in his dress, and I think—" Miss Asken—"Yes, what do you think?" Miss Crumby—"I think I ought to wait till he asks me."

A Strong Statement

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC AND DIARRHŒA REMEDY has been the means of saving more human lives and relieving more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. There are thousands of homes that always keep a bottle in their medicine chests, for there is no telling when such a medicine is wanted. Get a bottle to day; it may save a life.

We wish travellers would realise the importance of having with them a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhœa Remedy. Change of water and diet frequently produces diarrhœa, which can be quickly cured with this remedy. For sale by all chemists and medicine vendors; WATKINS Limited, General Agents.

No Remission of Taxation.

LONDON, January 23.

In a speech, Mr Austin Chamberlain declared that there were signs of somewhat less prosperous years coming.

The revenue returns indicated that the anticipations of a good budget would not be realised. There had also been unanticipated expenditure.

He feared that he would not be able to propose any remissions of taxation during the coming session. The time had come to husband the resources in order to restore the country's credit.

THE WAR CLOUD.

LONDON, January 22.

Though there has been no actual offer of mediation, Japan has informed the Governments in London, Berlin and Washington, that mediation is not acceptable.

Viscount Hayashi referring to rumours that Japan would modify her demands, declared that Japan had from the first asked the irreducible minimum.

The Russian Cruisers Dmitri Donovoi and Aurora with twelve Destroyers have sailed from Suez. One Destroyer is disabled.

The Battleship Oshio and the Transport Saratoff will be docked at Suez.

DISTURBANCES IN COREA.

The American Minister at Seoul has wired to Washington that there is considerable disturbance throughout Corea and the Japanese have been attacked in many places.

Major General Ijichi has arrived at Seoul, where he has been appointed attaché. It is believed at Seoul that the appointment was made with a view to his directing any Japanese military measures that may be necessary to restore order.

[The following appeared in the Standard of Dec. 22 :- Paris, Dec. 21. - The following telegram has been received here from Seoul: - Numerous disturbances have taken place at Chemulpo and Masampo between the Japanese and the Korean population. The wires from Seoul to the coast are in charge of Japanese telegraphists. There is talk of Japanese troops being disembarked to preserve order, but if any such movement is made it is said that it will be in agreement with the Russian Government. - Ed. C.M.]

THE WAR SCARE.

The 'Robilla Maru' as a Transport.

Nothing of any consequence was heard locally to-day with regard to the Northern embargo, and with the exception of the news that the Robilla Maru had been chartered by the Japanese as a transport, there was nothing to add to the existing excitement. The Robilla Maru just arrived from Manila, and was preparing to take in cargo for her outward voyage, when the manager of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha received word to send the ship to Japan. She leaves to-morrow at daylight and will on arrival in Japan be under the orders of the Naval authorities. In the meantime the Toyo Kisen Kaisha will do its utmost to keep faith with its customers by dispatching the Robilla Maru to Manila as often as possible, and by chartering other vessels. The Japanese Government has now taken up about fifty ships as transports.

Alleged Child Murder.

Pang Lung and his wife, Cheung Kam Fong, were charged at the Magistracy to-day before Mr T. Sercombe Smith with the murder of their daughter, nine days old, at Fan Ling, in the New Territory. Evidence was given as to the arrest of both parties. Dr Wm. Hunter deposed that he received the body of a Chinese female child, aged about a week or ten days. The body was extremely dirty, and there were several bruises, one over the right eye, and others on the body. On the neck were marks, which pointed to probable attempts at strangulation, and the child was emaciated. The cause of death, in his opinion, was neglect and starvation. Indian Constable 44 said that on Jan. 14 he met Pang Lung, who was carrying a baby in a small piece of matting, and that he arrested him. The case was adjourned.

Russia's Concessions.

TOKIO, January 18.

The proposals contained in Russia's rejoinder are correctly stated in Reuter's telegram of the 12th inst.

The proposals in question are as follows: -

1. - Japan is accorded various concessions in Corea.

2. - Japan is allowed to deal with southern Corea economically and strategically as her interests may require.

3. - Russia leaves Japan full commercial freedom in northern Corea, but neither there nor in southern Corea shall Japan permanently occupy fortresses, whether on the coast or in the interior.

4. - A neutral fifty-kilometre (thirty-mile) zone shall be established along the Yalu and Tumen rivers where neither Japan nor Russia may erect fortresses. The Straits of Corea are to be neutral and free for Russian ships.

5. - Russia accepts no conditions in reference to Manchuria, but not to her representation for their commercial interests.

It is also stated that Russia has notified the Powers that she will respect all the rights granted them in Manchuria under their treaties with China. - Ed.]

NEWS FROM GERMANY.

BERLIN, January 18.

The peaceful assurances given by the Czar at the New Year's reception, have made a deep impression all over Europe. The French Press is unanimously full of praise for Russia. The Temps states that Count Lamsdorff and M. Delcasse are much astonished that they have been credited with the intention to intervene. The German Press expresses the hope that Russia will accept the Japanese demands. The Czar in a telegram replying to Viceroy Alexieff's congratulations invoked God that he may send peace and welfare in the new year. This telegram has improved the confidence in Port Arthur that the conflict has been solved amicably.

THE RISING IN SOUTH-WEST AFRICA.

BERLIN, January 18.

Unsettling news has come from German South-west Africa. One battalion of marines has received orders to embark at once, while reinforcements will follow. The capital, Windhoek, is menaced. A number of stations have been taken by the rebels. Some farms have been pillaged and the farmers murdered.

LATER.

The Chancellor, Count Billow, stated to-day in the German Reichstag that the Hereros had revolted and that no cause for the outbreak was to be seen, and it is on so great a scale that the fruits of ten years' efforts and perseverance were entirely destroyed throughout the territory of the revolt. A desperate fight against the superior number of the natives had been forced upon the Whites in German South-west Africa. The revolution commenced at a time when the Governor had sent the majority of his troops to the South of the colony, where Bondelswarts were fighting. Okahandja and Karibib, both stations on the railway from Swakopmund to Windhoek, were menaced by the insurgents, while Windhoek itself was already threatened by them. A reinforcement of the colonial troops already has been sent off. But the latest news has given cause for worse fears. Five hundred marines would therefore leave, in addition to those already sent on Thursday for Swakopmund. This arrival there was expected on the 8th February. The cruiser Hohenzollern had left Capetown for Swakopmund.

The Bundesrath had voted the credit asked by the Government for the campaign in South-west Africa. The Reichstag will undoubtedly do the same.

SUPREME COURT.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.
(Before His Honour Sir Wm. Goodman, Chief Justice.)
Saturday, January 23, 1904.

CAPT. O'KEEFE PRISONED TO BE DEAD.
Mr. E. H. Sharp, K.C., barrister-at-law (instructed by Mr. Victor Deacon, of Messrs Deacon, Looker and Deacon, solicitors), appeared in support of a motion for leave to swear the death of Captain David D.
O'Keefe of the Santa Cruz. Mr. H. Hursthouse, of Messrs Denney and Bowley, solicitors, watched the case on behalf of the widow and daughter, both of whom are in America.

Mr. Sharp said the motion asked his Lordship's leave to presume the death of Captain O'Keefe as having occurred on or about 31st May, 1901. There was no opposition to the motion. It was the desire of all parties that the death should be presumed.

His Lordship.—The two sons were on board the ship also.
Mr. Sharp.—Yes. There were other children of the family, he went on to say, 10 and in the Caroline Islands. There was only one child of the daughter. The American wife was still living. This application was made on behalf of Mr. George P. Lamont, who was the Hongkong executor appointed by Captain O'Keefe by his will and codicils, and there before his Lordship affidavits made by Mr. Lamont and Mr. Deacon giving the particulars of a violent typhoon which occurred at the time in question.

His Lordship.—What struck me in this affidavit was that they say that on the 31st May Captain O'Keefe left Hongkong.

Mr. Sharp explained that he cleared on the 31st but actually sailed on the 7th. The testimony was that the previous night O'Keefe lived for many years in the Caroline Islands, at Yap, one of the most westerly of the group, a little south of Lat.
10, and about Long. 138-139; Captain O'Keefe traded there and amassed a very considerable fortune. The property, valued on 31st May, 1901, at over $120,000, was at the time of Captain O'Keefe's death in the habit Hongkong, which he had been in the vicinity of visiting during his long residence at Yap. In the year 1890 on the occasion of one of his visits to Hongkong, Captain O'Keefe made the will which was now before his Lordship and also two codicils in 1896. By one of those codicils Mr. Lamont was appointed Hongkong executor in lieu of the previous one.
In May, 1901, Captain O'Keefe was again in Hongkong and on the 31st of that month the Santa Cruz cleared for Yap. Four days later she was towed out of Hongkong Harbour, since which time neither the ship nor anybody on board had been heard of.

The cargo consisted of a quantity of dynamite, fuses and detonators. As the Lordship said, there would be no reason for the Hongkong Observatory to report that a violent typhoon had occurred apparently just in the path of the Santa Cruz on her voyage to Yap. On the 10th and 16th, Mr. Figg of the Observatory reported that a typhoon crossed the Philippines from the Pacific in Lat. 12, which would take the typhoon through the Sulu Sea in the middle of the China Sea west of Mindoro, and was still in the China Sea west of the island of Luzon, at that time moving north. On the 10th the typhoon had got farther north, still to the west of the Balingas Channel and in the next evening to the north-western returned to dry the typhoon apparently returned to the Pacific through the Bashi Channel.
The two channels together formed the Formosa Channel. They did not know whether on this particular voyage Captain O'Keefe went to Yap by the west of Luzon or by the south of Luzon through the Formosa Channel. The typhoon during the month of January, 1902, was the most violent which followed the typhoon. There was no time for the voyage to Yap was about 32 days, and the minimum about four weeks. If she went by the typhoon coming west would probably mean that the Santa Cruz went south, by which she would get to Mindoro Strait about the 16th or 17th when the typhoon came through.

His Lordship.—What is the most recent news you have got?

Mr. Sharp said the most recent news was in October last from Yap. Since May the petitioner had got several letters from there, the last of which was dated February, 1903. This was filed on 16th May, 1903.
Since May, 1901, he had received several letters stating that Captain O'Keefe had never returned to the Caroline, nor had his ship been seen by other ships trading to that group and the southern seas.

His Lordship said it amounted to this that neither O'Keefe nor his two sons had been heard of. There were also on board a Scandinavian, Mr. Hoff, a Mr. Gillespie, and a Chinese carpenter, who seemed to have been accepted by the family as dead.
Of course the general proposition was that you required to wait seven years before you could get presumption of a man's death.

Mr. Sharp remarked that that period had been very much cut down. He could refer his Lordship to a case where presumption of death was made after three years. The case he was going to cite was almost on all four with this, the case of a missing ship —re Matthews, 77 Law Times Reports, p.
630. There were no special circumstances in the case he had quoted. The man disappeared from his home in London and was missing for three years. The Court took the view that the presumption would have been made if the man had been heard of his existence and allowed presumption of death for the purpose of probate.
In the case of missing ships the Court gave such leave in from one and a half to two years.

His Lordship.—That is in case of insurance?
Mr. Sharp replied that for insurance purposes a ship was supposed to have foundered if it was missing for one year.
He went on to quote several cases, and then Mr. Lamont gave evidence to the effect that the ship was not insured on the last voyage.

His Lordship said he would give leave to swear death as having occurred on or since 31st May, 1901. This was a case which did not come before the Court in Hongkong often. It seemed that the ordinary law was that when a man had not been heard of for a period of seven years his death might be presumed, but there had been exceptional cases in which death had been presumed at a less period, and among those cases he had been referred to four of which Alton was comparatively recent date. Alton the ship was last heard of on 6th September, 1890, and he found that in March, 1892, about eighteen months afterwards, the President gave leave after hearing counsel to swear the death as having occurred on or after 6th September when the ship was last heard of. He did not think he would be doing anybody any injustice by following the course in that case, and therefore he gave leave to swear death as having occurred on or after 7th May, 1901, which was the date when the ship actually left Hongkong Harbour, having taken out her clearance some four days previously. Probate would be dealt with separately.

The Court then adjourned.

ALLEGED FRAUD.
The case in which Pau Ping, Pau Kim and Pau Ping, sons of Pow A Tai who died on January 20, 1896, proceeded against Pau Kwah Chin, executor of the estate, on a charge of fraud in connection with the administration of their father's estate, was again before the Chief Justice for further consideration.

Mr. E. H. Sharp, K.C., instructed by Mr. John Hastings, appeared on behalf of the defendants, while plaintiffs were unrepresented, Pau Ping being present in Court.

Mr. Sharp said that this was an action for the administration of the estate of Pow A Tai, which had already been before the Court. At the last hearing in Sept. 1902 Mr. Bruce Shephard was appointed Special Referee, and his certificate was issued on December 18, 1903. He asked His Lordship to prove the certificate and give judgment for defendant on the strength of that certificate. The defendant was a man of good, honourable, standing in Hongkong, and naturally wished to clear himself from the needless and unjustifiable charges made against him in the action.
Mr. Sharp then went on to review the action, and quoted from the report of the last hearing allegations of fraud made by the plaintiffs against the defendant. After the appointment of the Special Referee, and when accounts had been gone into, the plaintiffs' solicitor, Mr. Thompson, withdrew the allegations made against the defendant, there being no evidence to support such allegations.

Pau Ping was called and said he authorised his brother to bring the action against the defendant, and stated that he had no money to pay a solicitor to conduct his case.

The Chief Justice, addressing Pau Ping said, On Jan. 22, 1876, your father died, leaving the defendant his executor. Probate of the will was granted on Feb. 11, 1876, nearly 28 years ago, at which time you and your brothers were small boys. Part of your father's business, that relating to contracts of goods, was worth $400 at that time, and if the executor as he might very well have done if he did not have your interests at heart, had sold that business it would have brought $400. Instead he carried it on, and you and your brothers got $7869 for your share. There was one technicality against the defendant, that was, that instead of asking the Court to fix his remuneration, he took it himself, although he only took $210, which was a very reasonable sum. If he had asked the Court to fix the amount it would probably have been fixed at $50 per month, which would have worked out to $10,200 for the seventeen years he attended to the business.

In regard to the rest of the property, Mr.
Bruce Shephard, the Special Referee, reports deeply into the accounts, and found that the defendant had done his duty fully.
He had done a great deal more than most executors would have done. The will directed him to give to the three boys, when the youngest became 18 years of age, their respective shares of the property, and on April 18, 1892, he reported to the Court that he had given to the three boys a signed release, getting from you three boys a signed release. If you had acted rightly and properly at the time, you would have thanked him extremely for the manner in which he had administered the estate. What you did do was this: Seven years afterwards, on April 12, 1900, you issued a writ in which you charged the defendant with all sorts of fraud, of concealing the estate from you, and having practically stolen from you right and left. In the first place you asked that the release signed by you be set aside because you were not of age when it was made. The Court granted that, and gave costs against the defendant, as far as the release was concerned. If the Court had known as it did now, costs may not have been given against the defendant, but all that the Court had to go on was that three charges of fraud were being made against the defendant, and that he had taken a full release from three boys under age, which was not a wise proceeding with his part. Mr. Bruce Shephard was then appointed Special Referee, at the request of both parties, and after a year's work his certificate was issued. His report is that the defendant had paid more than he ought to have paid, and your own solicitor, after hearing the evidence given before Mr.
Bruce Shephard, admitted that there was no evidence supporting the allegations of fraud. This matter has again come up to-day for further consideration, and the Court is asked to decide the case upon the certificate of the Special Referee. If you had Counsel here to-day the only point he could object to in the certificate is that the Special Referee has allowed the sum of $10,200, which he only took as remuneration. If costs were taken as remuneration, the only result would have been that the Court would have adjourned the case to allow the executor to make application for the Court to fix his remuneration. That would only have entailed additional expense on a pure technicality.

Subject to anything Pau Ping had to say, the Chief Justice said that he had come to the conclusion that he would allow the certificate with costs; the costs to include the whole of the costs of the action, except those already paid by the executor on the previous order of the Court in respect to the setting aside of the release. In his opinion there was not a stain on the defendant's character, the only technicality being that he helped himself to a reasonable amount, but he had no right to help himself at all.

Turning again to Pau Ping, the Chief Justice said, The first man is dead, the second in goal, and you are the third. You have nothing to say for yourself. These are the men who have been persecuting the defendant.

The certificate was proven, with costs against the plaintiffs.
